Who Ate More?

Materials: fraction kits

1. A chocolate bar is made up of 12 equal pieces. Tom ate ¾ of a chocolate bar. Sarah ate 2/3 of the same kind of chocolate bar.

2. Draw a representation of both chocolate bars to show how much Tom and Sarah ate.

3. Tom said that he ate more chocolate than Sarah. Is he correct? Explain your thinking.

©K-5MathTeachingResources.com