

Name: _____

Date: _____

Think of a time when you argued with someone (friend, sibling, parent, teacher, etc.). How did you prove you were right? How does this relate to a mathematical argument? Talk about this with your group, and fill out the table below.

How did you prove you were right?	What are the similarities and differences between arguing with a friend and a mathematical argument?	Write your own definition of a mathematical argument.